Ivey Ranch Park Association

Meet Ivey Ranch's Volunteer of the Year, Carie Edner

Carie has invested over a decade of time, talent, and love into Ivey Ranch. She is bright, resilient, dependable, and funny. Her flexibility and liveliness have benefited riders with special needs, horses, fundraising, and all the people she touches. Please congratulate her next time you see her at the ranch (which is multiple days of every week). Or, better yet, come celebrate with us as we celebrate her award with the North County Philanthropy Council, on Thursday, November 19 at 3PM! Stop by the

Two new girls at the barn! Eeda and Tia

Both have come from wonderful homes and are "on loan" to Ivey Ranch to participate with our many terrific riders.

Eeda came to us in July and will be with us for 1-2 years until her family retires out of state and takes her with them. Eeda is a Norwegian Fjord and is a huge help to the Therapy Program due to her stout size and height.

Tia came to us in October and will be with us for the duration of her working career. Tia is an Azteca and has an amazing willingness to participate. When she is finally ready for retirement, she will do so back with her loving family in Valley Center.

A special thank you to Instructor, Miss Amy, for helping bring Eeda to us, and a special thank you to Dr. Grove for introducing Tia's family to Ivey Ranch.

Volunteering and Weather Reminder

As Fall is upon us there are two really important things we would like you to remember:

1) Your help and volunteering are critical to the day-to-day programming and riders that participate at Ivey Ranch. Please don't let the weather deter you from signing up and helping out. Click here to see all the opportunities we have for you to get involved!

2) If the weather is questionable and you are wondering if we are having lessons or volunteering, call us at (760) 722-4839 x 417. That extension is designated for our "Weather Updates" so that you don't make a trip out when lessons/volunteering have been cancelled, or so you don't skip coming because you think we might be closed.

Take the guess work out of it - just call us!

We are thankful to our

Horse Sponsors and the photographer that captured some of them so beautifully

There are a lot of special people here that make things happen - staff, volunteers, and donors. What is amazing is when someone with a special gift steps up to capture others that also share their time, talent, and treasure.

We would like to say a special thank you to Andrew Thoresen, Photographer and Horse Sponsor, for taking some incredible pictures of the people who so generously support many of the horses we all love and share.

Thank you!

We greatly appreciate your support and donations. Here are three things that you can do to help us right now:

1. Write a really cool review on Yelp so that the general community can know what great things we do here.
2. Send an item from our Wish List to a child or horse here at the Ranch. Do this now through December 11th to be entered into the Gift of Giving Raffle for some great prizes just for you!
3. Sign up to make a $5, $10, or $25 monthly donation. The children, Veterans, and horses will all benefit from your commitment.
